

Diversity Job Fair for Adjunct Faculty

Wednesday, March 25, 2009
4:30 – 7:00 pm

Westchester Community College
Harold L. Drimmer Library

This event has an Open House format. We encourage guests to arrive at anytime between 4:30 and 6:45 pm. Please do not arrive early as we cannot accommodate early arrivals.

4:30 – 7:00 pm

Faculty from academic departments will be available at information tables to speak with you informally about adjunct opportunities within their departments.

Human Resources staff will be available to collect your resume, discuss minimum qualifications, compensation, and benefits for adjunct faculty positions.

In addition, the Educational Opportunity Center of Westchester Community College, the Division of Continuing Education and the Academic Support Center will also be represented.

The Dr. Julius Ford Teaching Fellowship Program is a new program especially created to assist graduate students (or recent graduates) to prepare for full-time, tenure track, teaching, as well as faculty-held administrative, positions. Learn more about this program by visiting with the coordinators at their assigned table.

5:15 & 6:15 pm

Presentation: “Top Reasons to be an Adjunct Faculty Member at Westchester Community College” Join WCC faculty for this short, light hearted, but informative presentation on the benefits of teaching at the college.

5:00, 5:30 &
6:00 pm

Campus Tours: Our beautiful campus is enjoyed by faculty, staff and students alike. We invite you to take a brief tour with a member of our college community.

Light refreshments will be served throughout the evening.
