

THE ART OF PERSUASION

JAN 22 - MAR 1, 2008

The Art of Persuasion, an exhibition of prints organized by The New York Society of Etchers, will be traveling to the Westchester Community College Fine Arts Gallery in Valhalla, NY. The exhibition will run from Tuesday, January 22 through Saturday, March 1, 2008.

This exhibition of original prints was curated by Marilyn Kushner, then the curator of prints and drawings at the Brooklyn Museum of Art, and first presented during November 2006 at The National Arts Club in New York City, where over thirty works of activist and socially engaging works were shown. Building upon the critical success of this show, the format was expanded to include additional prints that could be accommodated by larger gallery spaces and presented at the Paramount Center for the Arts in Peekskill, NY this past summer.

Printmakers participating in the exhibition include Linda Adato, Marshall Arisman, Kristine Bouyoucos, Ann Chernow, Zev Deans, Stephen A. Fredericks, Danny Hauben, Art Hazelwood, Frances Jetter, Denise Kasof, Mattias Kerns, Brian Knoerzer, Rosalee Isaly, Sue Leopard, Bill Maxwell, Diane Miller, Josh McPhee, Louis Netter, Joan O'Connor, Rick Pantell, Sarah Sears, Bruce Waldman, Barbara Wilson, Barbara Wilson, and Bruce Waldman.

Following the extended tour of the exhibition it will travel to Loyola University Museum of Art in Chicago in the fall of 2008. Additionally, in the fall of 2008 The New York Society of Etchers will present a final recast format of the exhibition to be known as The Art of Democracy at The National Arts Club. The Art of Democracy will be a part of a national coalition of exhibitions led by organizers Art Hazelwood in San Francisco, California and Stephen A. Fredericks of the New York Society of Etchers in New York City. The coalition effort will include prints and a promotional poster exchange between all of the participating artist printmaking groups. Interested artists and print workshops and exhibiting societies should contact info@artofdemocracy.org.
