Dear Graduates:

Congratulations! I am so excited for you as you reach this incredible milestone! I am also so grateful to have the opportunity to wish you all well.

Graduating from college is a remarkable achievement, one that speaks volumes not only of your exceptional academic prowess but also of your unwavering dedication, perseverance, and commitment to yourself, your future, and your success.

As a Westchester County Legislator, I have had the privilege of witnessing the contributions of outstanding individuals to our community. Your academic success serves as an inspiration to your peers and the broader community, highlighting the importance of hard work, determination, and a thirst for knowledge in achieving one's goals.

I am so grateful for the County's contributions to Westchester Community College to ensure that this gem continues to provide a path to the middle class and self-actualization for all individuals. Thank you also to your professors, adjunct professors, and support staff for all that they did to ensure this day would come.

Your futures are brimming with endless possibilities, and I have every confidence that you will continue to excel in all your endeavors.

Best wishes,

Emiljana Ulaj
