

Paul Smith's College

Paul Smith's College's transfer page

Paul Smith's College is a private institution that was founded in 1946. It has a rural setting. It utilizes a semester-based academic calendar. Paul Smith's College's ranking in the 2013 edition of Best Colleges is Regional Colleges (North), 41. It is the only four-year institution of higher education within the Adirondack State Park. Paul Smith's College is organized into three major academic divisions: the School of Forestry and Natural Resources (FNNR), the Division of Hospitality, Resort and Culinary Management (HRCM), and the Division of Sciences, Liberal Arts and Business (SLAB). Each division offers two- and four-year degree programs. The student-faculty ratio at Paul Smith's College is 15:1. Paul Smith's College offers bachelor's programs including Biology, Business, Culinary Arts and Service Management, Fisheries and Wildlife Sciences, Forestry, Hotel, Resort and Tourism Management, and Natural Resources Management and Policy (NRMP). Additionally, the college offers two-year (or multi-year) degree programs in science, liberal arts, business; and certificate programs for surveying and GIS.

WCC programs:  Paul Smith's College's 4 year majors:

Culinary Arts and Management	Culinary
------------------------------	----------